NOTES

USSR-Syria: Moscow has extended a credit of at least $150 million for construction of the Euphrates Dam in Syria. This project was surveyed by Soviet technicians ten years ago but it had been thought until recently that it would be financed by West Germany. This new credit, which will more than double economic credits furnished Syria by the USSR, is believed by Syrian officials to reflect Soviet approval of recent changes in the Syrian Government. It also reflects Moscow's increased interest in expanding its influence in the Middle East.

*Dominican Republic: The 24 April anniversary of the revolution passed relatively peacefully, with noisy demonstrations but no major incidents. Most non-Communist politicians and officials adopted a responsible attitude toward the event and took steps to avoid violence. Nevertheless, additional demonstrations scheduled for the coming week hold open the possibility of serious incidents.
